The Royal Conservatory of Music is one of the largest and most respected music education institutions in the world, providing the definitive standard of excellence in curriculum design, assessment, performance training, teacher certification, and arts-based social programs.

The mission of The Royal Conservatory—to develop human potential through leadership in music and the arts—is based on the conviction that the arts are humanity’s greatest means to achieve personal growth and social cohesion. Advancing the transformative effect that music and the arts have on society lies at the heart of everything The Royal Conservatory does.

Increasingly, music and the arts are also being recognized as crucial intellectual building blocks, closely linked to cognitive functions such as brain and verbal-linguistic development; spatial reasoning; complex problem solving in mathematics and science; the development of emotional intelligence; interpersonal skills; and self-expression. Since its inception in 1886, The Royal Conservatory has translated the latest research on music and arts education into effective programs benefiting millions of people around the world.

The more than five million alumni of The Royal Conservatory have enjoyed the many benefits of music study and carried these benefits into subsequent careers in a wide range of fields, including medicine, business, politics, education, science, and sports. Others, such as Glenn Gould, Oscar Peterson, Diana Krall, Teresa Stratas, Sir Roger Norrington, and Jon Vickers, have achieved international musical acclaim.

The Royal Conservatory Certificate Program provides a recognized standard of musical achievement through an effectively sequenced system of study and individual student assessments, from preparatory to advanced levels. Considered the foremost music education system in Canada, the United States, and many other countries around the world, its broad use has bound together individuals from these nations with the thread of shared creative experiences.

Introduction to Celebration Series®, 2015 Edition

Celebration Series®, 2015 Edition is a comprehensive series of graded repertoire and etudes for piano. This outstanding collection of music from the Baroque era to the present day provides thoroughly engaging teaching and learning materials. Each book includes high-quality recordings, easily accessible online, to inspire students and teachers.

Piano Repertoire

Preparatory A to Level 10

The Piano Repertoire books provide a representative collection of pieces from the Baroque, Classical, Romantic, and contemporary style periods. These volumes are the ultimate resource for examinations, recitals, festivals, competitions, auditions, and personal enjoyment.

Piano Etudes

Levels 1 to 10

The Piano Etudes books are designed to help students gradually master a variety of technical challenges. Each book contains pieces from well-known etude composers including Czerny, Burgmüller, and Heller, along with contemporary character pieces.

Recordings

Preparatory A to Level 10

These recordings provide superb, reliable, representative interpretations of the complete works from the Piano Repertoire and Piano Etudes books. An invaluable resource for style-appropriate performance practice and inspiration, recordings are easily accessible online.

The twelve individual levels of the Celebration Series®, 2015 Edition are grouped into three categories:

- Preparatory–Level 4: Elementary
- Levels 5–8: Intermediate
- Levels 9–10: Advanced

The pieces in each Piano Repertoire book from Levels 1 to 10 are subdivided into lists, according to stylistic period.

Four Star® Sight Reading and Ear Tests, 2015 Edition

Preparatory A to Level 10

This graded series guides students in developing comprehensive reading ability and musical understanding, from beginner to advanced levels. Assignments are organized into daily sight-reading and online ear-training exercises to facilitate regular practice at home. Interactive online ear-training activities offer students the opportunity to practice aural exercises independently.

Set 1

Day 1

Go online for today's Ear-Training activities.

★ Identify the first interval in each pattern, then play with the given fingering.

★ Tap one measure of the beat with your hand or foot. Continue tapping while you speak or tap the rhythm.

★ Circle the broken G major triad in m. 3, then play this melody.

★ Add staccato marks to the quarter notes in today's ★ Sight Playing melody, then play it again.

Day 2

Go online for today's Ear-Training activities.

★ Plan the fingering, then play.

★ Tap one measure of the beat with your hand or foot. Continue tapping while you speak or tap the rhythm.

★ Plan the fingering by playing silently on the surface of the keys. Then play this melody with clear dynamic contrasts.

★ Using the notes of the G major pentascale, make up your own melody using today's ★ Rhythm Reading pattern.

Technical Requirements for Piano, 2015 Edition

Preparatory to Level 8

The Technical Requirements for Piano series provides a sequential approach to developing technical skills. Summary charts show an overview of scales, chords, and arpeggios required for examinations at each level. Additional content includes practice tips, progress charts, and previews of the next level.

Piano Syllabus, 2015 Edition

This is an essential resource for teachers preparing students for examinations of The Royal Conservatory Certificate Program. The Piano Syllabus outlines the piano curriculum for Preparatory through Associate Diploma levels, including extensive listings of repertoire from all eras as well as carefully sequenced musicianship and technical requirements.

Popular Selection List, 2015 Edition

The Popular Selection List is a compilation of non-classical pieces, carefully selected to suit the rhythmic and technical challenges of Levels 1 through 9 of The Royal Conservatory Certificate Program. With a thorough selection of musical theater tunes, jazz standards, TV and movie themes, and contemporary favorites, the Popular Selection List is an ideal resource for expanded contemporary repertoire. The Popular Selection List, 2015 Edition is an addendum to The Royal Conservatory's Piano Syllabus, 2015 Edition.

"The new Celebration Series® is a tour de force, providing a superb resource for today's students and teachers. Each level offers an unparalleled selection of repertoire that is a cross-section of old and new, familiar and unfamiliar. The pieces are engaging and rewarding for students, while providing a solid pedagogical framework for teachers."

Dale Wheeler, Chair of Performing Arts
Red Deer College
